

Person opens Uber eats

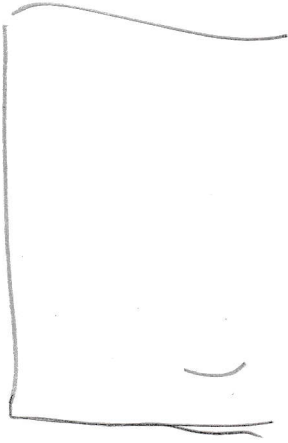

Fridge reminds user they are also saving $

You could order food but you'd be saving $30 if you cook. Plus it would be more sustainable

Fridge reminds user that there are ingredients inside

Hey! You still have some great ripe tomatoes. We can make a recipe together.

Person is convinced

Ok you're right
What do I need to do?

Person questions time commitment

IDK I'm kinda tired

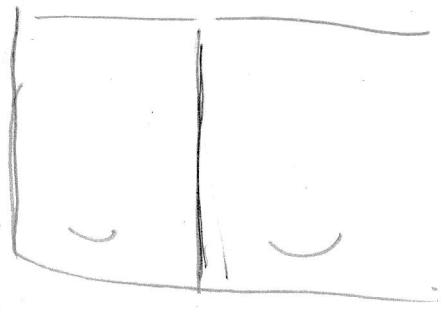

Don't worry I know some quick easy recipes

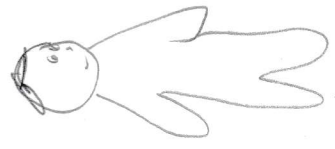

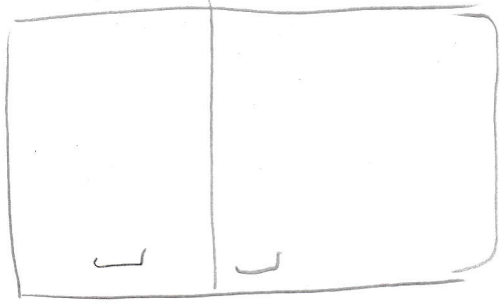

They start cooking

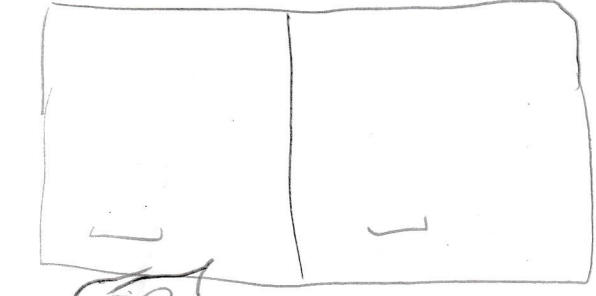

Great! Let's start by turning on the oven to 400°

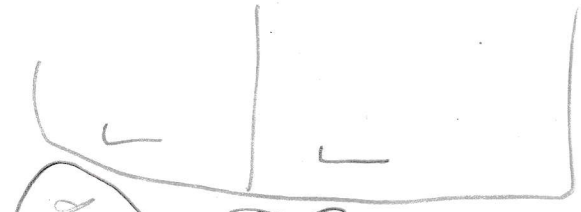

Person walks up to fridge

Fridge greets them

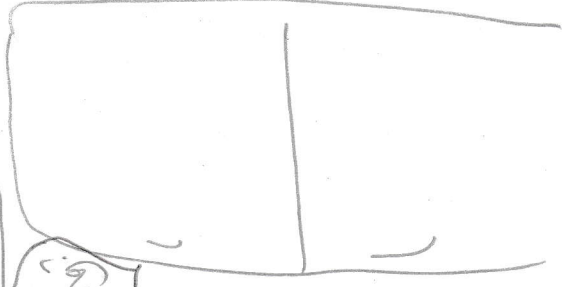

Welcome
Have you thought of anything
to cook something
to cook

yes you help
could
me!
I could want?

Can we do mexican?

What are you cooking?

We dont have many ingredients for tacos. Would you like me to make you a grocery list or choose something else?

Do we have ingredients
for italian?

yes what about pesto
pasta?

Sounds good
Can you walk me through the
